

Answer all 3 questions below.

Check YourUnderstanding

1. Identify the category of industrial activity represented by each of the following examples: barber shop, pig farm, gold mine, steel mill, automobile assembly plant, and nuclear energy research laboratory.
2. Prepare a summary note to explain how Canadian industrial activity evolved over time and why it has become necessary to subdivide the services sector.
3. "Until a nation develops a healthy manufacturing and service sector, it will always be vulnerable to exploitation by other nations." Defend or refute this statement.